master class ::

modern technique & choreography with Leah Seals

In this master class, Leah will teach a modern warm up inspired by Donald Byrd's signature technique and will then work with dancers to create choreography using phrase manipulation. This is the concept that one small phrase can be manipulated in multiple different ways to create a beautifully unique piece of work. Leah hopes to give dancers insight to what class is like as a pre-professional dancer as well as a new approach for dancers to use when making their own choreography.
